

FANG ZHAO

Personal Profile

Since 2010 I have been studying contemporary applied art in the ceramic department. In university I have greatly developed my artistic and practical skill. I am very motivate and enthusiastic toward creative works. Facing new challenges I have highly improved my problems solving skills and I am now confident towards any new tasks. In my art I bring my Asian background and my beliefs. The key point of my work is that life is never perfect and sometimes the simplest imperfect things are the most beautiful.
